

Staci Upham-Tubbs has always been an entrepreneur at heart. With degrees in marketing management, computer technology and paralegal. Staci knew she was made to run her own business.

Co-Founder of TNK Children's Foundation with her family.

Past Founder/CEO - Beads of Hope

Developed the concept for a Direct Sales Company and implemented the birth of the company and workflow processes.

Developed a marketing campaign to raised awareness to how common childhood cancer is through marketing, fundraising and presentation.

Designed, manufactured and distributed unique, high quality accessories.

Recruited, trained, and motivated sales consultants to meet and exceed sales goals.

Completed all accounting and bookkeeping functions in accordance with Federal and Multi-State laws

Developed catalogs, website, sales receipts, postcards, and business manual to market products and company

Developed Inventory Control and Acquisition Process to ensure high quality and best-cost materials for production.

Performed all buying functions for products to be carried by the company.

Received Humanitarian Award from the UMKC Dental Association for commitment to community service and advocacy of Childhood Cancer.

Past Ambassador of Northland Career Center. Promoted a positive image for the career center and encouraged others to further their education through the Northland Career Center

Past Head usher & coordinator for 4:30 service at Vineyard KC North Church

Past Volunteer Coordinator for Vineyard Angel Food Ministries

Past Vice President Sterling Guild of Greater Kansas City

Past Ministry leader for The Oaks ministry at Vineyard KC North

Active committee member Boy Scouts of America Troop 214 with both son's being Eagle Scouts before 16 years of age